

Know all men by these Presents.

I Gottlieb Krauth knowing the uncertainty of life, and the certainty of death, do make and publish this my last Will & Testament, in writing in words & figures, to wit:— First:— Being mindful of the kindness of my wife Josephine B. Krauth in our efforts through life, in consideration of that kindness I bequeath unto her all of my property both Real Estate and Personal property, of every kind, to have and to hold Absolutely in her own right and name, the same as I do myself. And further at the death of my wife it is my Will that my two Daughters Ellen L. & Mary P. Krauth share equally in such property as may be left at the death of my wife, Except Five Dollars which my son George H. Krauth is Willed by this my Will. I further Will that my wife Josephine B. Krauth Carry this Will into effect without being required to take out Letters of Administration or required to give Bond for the Trust herein Confided to her.

This 14th day of January A. D. 1852
