

Know all men by these Presents.

That I David Froxel of the Township of Polk, County of DeBart, State of Missouri, being of sound mind do hereby make this my last Will and Testament, Signed with my hand and sealed with my seal, this 25th day of October A.D. 1873

- 1 To my well beloved wife Barbara I give and bequeath all my Goods, Chattels, Monies and Credits
- 2 To my Children Abraham, E. Froxel, Martin, P. Froxel, Martha, E. Martin, and her husband Albert, S. Martin and Amy, A. Turner and her husband John Turner. I have already given sundry various sums of money and conveyed certain tracts of real estate. and it is my desire, that when my remaining real estate shall be sold and my estate shall be settled, my heirs shall each receive a like amount taking into account the sums heretofore paid, and the value of real estate heretofore conveyed as shown by my receipts, Conveyances and other papers.

Witness my hand and seal this day and year above written

David Froxel

We attest the above and foregoing Will by subscribing our names hereto as witnesses in the presence of David Froxel the Testator, this 25th day of October A.D. 1873
